A photograph of a modern outdoor kitchen and dining area. The structure features a white-painted frame with a roof made of reddish-brown terracotta tiles. The floor is paved with light-colored, rectangular stone tiles. In the center, there is a long, rustic wooden table with two matching benches. To the left, a white door is set into the wall, and a small, square, black and white light fixture is mounted above it. In the background, a built-in kitchen area with white cabinetry and a dark countertop is visible. To the right, a set of stone steps leads up a garden path. The scene is surrounded by lush greenery, including palm trees and various shrubs, under a clear blue sky.
