Set out on a large hilltop plot amongst magnificent gardens with views of the Mediterranean, each of the individually designed pavilions is surrounded by meticulous gardens and water features. The main pavilion is approached through a Moorish style brick portico. The front door with water features either side opens onto the central hall. The entrance hall leads to the sitting / dining room and the master bedroom suite. The dining area leads to a cozy TV room and a spacious well-equipped kitchen. The Master suite consists of a large bedroom with dressing room, spacious bathroom and a study. The bedroom and study lead out to the garden. In the adjoining pavilion there are three spacious bedrooms with bathrooms and expansive sitting and dining terraces with views to the pool and sea beyond. Two additional pavilions provide two bedrooms with full bathrooms, one has its own private patio and garden, the other is currently used as an art studio. The heated pool has several terraces with stunning views. Under the pool there is a gym. The house has air conditioned and heated. A staff bedroom / bathroom adjoins the kitchen. There is a garage for 3 cars along with wine cellar and a lift to the entrance courtyard.

The image shows a modern interior space, likely a lounge or waiting area. The walls are covered in dark, vertically-grained wood paneling. The ceiling features exposed dark wooden beams with modern track lighting. In the center, a white upholstered armchair with a dark wood frame and a matching ottoman are positioned on a light-colored rug with abstract yellow and blue patterns. A tall, thin, light-colored folding screen stands near the chair. A large window in the background looks out onto a bright outdoor area with greenery. A black pendant lamp hangs over the chair. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated and contemporary.
